NOTICE

TO THE DEFENDANT(S):

Tennessee Law provides a ten thousand dollar ($10,000.00) personal property exemption from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. This list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for yourself and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer.

Americans with disabilities please contact the Clerk of the Court for the aforementioned County to obtain additional information.

3. In the normal course of business, CPS and Plaintiff maintain computerized account records and documents for account holders. CPS and Plaintiff maintain such records in the ordinary and routine course of business and it is their regular business practice to accurately record any business act, condition or event onto the computer record maintained for the accounts, with the entries made at or very near the time of any such occurrence.

  - d. That the Defendant is not an infant or incompetent.
5. Based on a review of the Department of Defense database, the Defendant is not a member of the United States Armed Forces who would be entitled to stay relief.
